Born in Washington, DC, in 1899, American composer, pianist and jazz bandleader Duke Ellington was one of the most influential figures in the history of music. In the early 1930s, his band achieved renown at the legendary Cotton Club in Harlem. Later, the band toured nationally and internationally. The “Duke” wrote over 900 compositions before his death in 1974; among his classics are Mood Indigo, Solitude, Caravan, Sophisticated Lady and Black, Brown and Beige.

This production was made possible, in part, by The Fred Eychaner New Works Endowment Fund.

Hans van Manen began his career in 1951 as a member of Sonia Gaskell’s Ballet Recital. In 1952, he joined the Netherlands Opera Ballet, where he created his first ballet, Feestgericht, in 1957. He was a member of Roland Petit’s company in Paris, Het Nationale Ballet in Amsterdam and Nederlands Dans Theater, where he later became a choreographer and Artistic Director of the company. He has created over 100 ballets, each carrying his unmistakable signature of clarity in structure and a refined simplicity of elements, which have earned him the name “the Mondrian” of dance. Mr. van Manen has staged ballets for many companies, including Stuttgart Ballet, Berlin Opera, National Ballet of Canada, Royal Danish Ballet, Compañía Nacional de Danza and Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater. He is the recipient of many awards including the Sonia Gaskell Prize for his entire body of work, the prestigious German Dance Prize and the Erasmus Prize for outstanding achievements in Dutch dance, and he was knighted by the Queen of the Netherlands in the Order of Orange Nassau. In 2003, the Foundation Hans van Manen, which categorizes and takes inventory of Mr. van Manen’s cultural estate so that it may function as a production archive, was officially launched.

Born in Chicago and raised in Kansas City, David Parsons enjoys a career as a performer, choreographer, teacher, director and producer. He was a lead dancer with the Paul Taylor Dance Company and in 1987 founded The Parsons Dance Company with lighting designer Howell Binkley. Mr. Parsons has created more than 70 works for his company and received commissions from American Ballet Theatre, Paul Taylor Dance Company, New York City Ballet, Het Muziektheater in Amsterdam and Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater. His work has been performed by the Paris Opera Ballet, The Joffrey Ballet, Nederlands Dans Theater, English National Ballet, Hubbard Street Dance Company and BatSheva Dance Company of Israel, among others. In 1999, he choreographed and directed the dance elements for Times Square 2000, the 24-hour festivities in New York celebrating the turn of the millennium. Mr. Parsons is a recipient of the 2000 Dance Magazine Award. In 2001, he received an American Choreography Award for his work as a co-producer of Aeros, a production featuring the Romanian Gymnastic Federation which premiered on the Bravo Channel.

Robert Battle, originally from Miami, Florida, is a graduate of the New World School of the Arts, where he trained with Ms. Gerri Houlihan. He earned a BFA degree from The Juilliard School under the direction of Benjamin Harkarvy, where he studied choreography with Bessie Schoenberg, Elizabeth Keen and Doris Rudko. While at Juilliard, he received a Princess Grace Dance Scholarship and the Martha Hill Prize. After graduation, Mr. Battle joined the Parsons Dance Company, where he danced for seven years. His choreography has been performed by the Parsons Dance Company in Australia, Italy and across the United States. In addition, his works have been commissioned by Hubbard Street 2, Dallas Black Dance Theater, The Juilliard School, Evolving Arts Inc., Perry-Mansfield, Ailey II and Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater. In 2002, Mr. Battle established his own company, Battleworks.

Lorenzo (Rennie) Harris was born and raised in an African-American community in North Philadelphia. Since age 15, he has been teaching workshops and classes at universities around the country and is a powerful spokesperson for the significance of “street” origins in dance. In 1992, Mr. Harris founded Rennie Harris Puremovement, a hip-hop dance company dedicated to preserving and disseminating hip-hop culture through workshops, classes, hip-hop history lecture demonstrations, long-term residencies, mentoring programs and public performances. The company has toured around the world. Mr. Harris is well versed in the many techniques of hip-hop, including B-boy, house dancing and stepping, among other styles that have spontaneously emerged from the inner cities of America. He brought these social dances to the concert stage, creating a cohesive dance style that finds a cogent voice in the theater. Voted one of the most influential people in the last hundred years of Philadelphia history, Mr. Harris is also a recipient of a Herb Alpert Award in the Arts.

Funds for the original Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater production of Urban Folk Dance were provided, in part, by Altria Group, Inc., and the Ailey New Works Fund.

Urban Folk Dance was originally commissioned by Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, as part of an artist-in-residence project featuring Ulysses Dove and Dayton Contemporary Dance Company (DCDC). Urban Folk Dance received its world premiere in 1990 by DCDC on the campus of Miami University.

The late, beloved Ulysses Dove was a “choreographer with a bold new voice,” whose works can be seen in the repertoires of major dance companies such as Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, The Culberg Ballet, Bayerische Staatsoper and Ballet France de Nancy. A native of Columbia, South Carolina, Dove began studying modern dance and ballet with Carolyn Tate, Xenia Chilstowa, Jack Moore, Judith Dunn, Bertram Ross, Helen McGehee and Mary Hinkson. After receiving his bachelor’s degree from Bennington College, Dove moved to New York City, where he studied with Maggie Black and Alfredo Corvino and performed with José Limón, Mary Anthony, Pearl Lang and Anna Sokolow. In 1970, he received a scholarship to the Merce Cunningham School and later joined Merce Cunningham Dance Company. In 1979, he made his choreographic debut with Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater. From 1980 to 1983, Dove was the assistant director of Groupe Recherche Choreographique de l’Opéra de Paris, where he taught company classes and choreographed. Judith Jamison is committed to his works as a continuing legacy to the Ailey repertory.

The Company

This work was made possible, in part, with commissioning funds from the New York State Council on the Arts, a State agency, and support from The Harkness Foundation for Dance and the National Endowment for the Arts.

Billy Wilson, internationally known choreographer and director, studied ballet with Antony Tudor and Karel Shook. He appeared on Broadway in Bells Are Ringing and Jamaica, and in the original London production of West Side Story. He was associated with the dance departments of Brandeis University, the National Center of Afro-American Artists and was an Associate Professor at Carnegie Mellon University’s School of Drama. In addition to choreographing the award-winning children’s television show Zoom, Mr. Wilson choreographed Broadway’s Odyssey and Bubbling Brown Sugar and directed and choreographed Guys and Dolls. He received numerous awards for his work, including two Emmy Awards and three Tony Award nominations. Billy Wilson died in August 1994.

Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater grew from the now fabled performance in March 1958 at the 92nd Street Young Men's Hebrew Association in New York. Led by Alvin Ailey and a group of young African-American modern dancers, that performance changed forever the perception of American dance. The Ailey Company has gone on to perform for an estimated 51 million people in 48 states and in 71 countries on six continents, including two historic residencies in South Africa. The Company has earned a reputation as one of the most acclaimed international ambassadors of American culture, promoting the uniqueness of the African-American cultural experience and the preservation and enrichment of the American modern dance heritage.

Born in Rogers, Texas, on January 5, 1931, Alvin Ailey was introduced to dance by performances of the Katherine Dunham Dance Company and the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo. His formal dance training began with an introduction to Lester Horton's classes by his friend, Carmen de Lavallade.

When Mr. Ailey began creating dance, he drew upon his “blood memories” of Texas, the blues, spirituals and gospel as inspiration, which resulted in the unique African-American modern classic ballet style. His greatest creative triumphs have been his popular and critically acclaimed works: Revelations.

Although he created 79 ballets over his lifetime, Alvin Ailey maintained that his company was not exclusively a repository for his own work. Today, the Company continues Mr. Ailey’s mission by presenting important works of the past and commissioning new ones to add to the repertoire. In all, more than 200 works by over 70 choreographers have been performed by the Ailey.

Before his untimely death in 1989, Alvin Ailey asked Judith Jamison to become Artistic Director of Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater. Ms. Jamison wrote in her autobiography, Dancing Spirit, “I hope I’m a continuation of Alvin’s vision. He has left me a road map. It’s very clear. It works.”

Judith Jamison (Artistic Director) was appointed Artistic Director of Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater in December 1989 at the request of her mentor, Alvin Ailey, who personally chose her to succeed. A native of Philadelphia, she studied with Marian Cuyjet, was discovered by Agnes de Mille and made her New York debut with American Ballet Theatre in 1957.

Judith Jamison (Artistic Director) was appointed Artistic Director of Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater in December 1989 at the request of her mentor, Alvin Ailey, who personally chose her to succeed. A native of Philadelphia, she studied with Marian Cuyjet, was discovered by Agnes de Mille and made her New York debut with American Ballet Theatre in 1964. She became a member of Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater in 1964 and danced with the Company for 15 years to great acclaim. Recognizing her extraordinary talent, Mr. Ailey created some of his most enduring roles for her, most notably the tour de force solo, Cry.

After leaving the Company in 1980, Ms. Jamison appeared as a guest artist with ballet companies all over the world and starred in the hit Broadway musical Sophisticated Ladies. In 1988, she formed her own company, The Jamison Project; a PBS special depicting her creative process, Judith Jamison: The Dancemaker, aired nationally the same year.

As a highly regarded choreographer, Ms. Jamison has created works for many companies. Her new ballet, Reminiscin’, was inspired by great female jazz artists and Edward Hopper’s famous painting, Nighthawks. Love Stories, with additional choreography by Robert Battle and Rennie Harris, was created in 2002. In 2003, HERE ... NOW was commissioned for the Cultural Olympiad in Salt Lake City. She choreographed Double Exposure for the Lincoln Center Festival in July 2000. Divining (1984), Rite (1991), River (1995), Sweet Release (1996), Echo: Far from Home (1998) and Hymn (1993), her stirring tribute to Mr. Ailey, are other major works she has choreographed for the Company.

Ms. Jamison is a published author whose autobiography, Dancing Spirit, was edited by Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis and published by Doubleday in 1993. She is the recipient of many awards and honorary degrees, including a prime time Emmy Award and an American Choreography Award for Outstanding Choreography in the PBS Great Performances: Dance in America special, A Hymn for Alvin Ailey, and an honorary doctorate from Howard University. In December 1999, Ms. Jamison was presented with the Kennedy Center Honor, recognizing her lifetime contributions to American culture through the performing arts. In 2001, she received the Algar H. Meadows Award from Southern Methodist University and was presented with a National Medal of Arts, the most prestigious award presented to artists in the United States.

Ms. Jamison carried the Olympic torch during the relay prior to the opening ceremonies in Salt Lake City in 2002. In 2003, she received the “Making a Difference” Award by the NAACP ACT-SO. Most recently, Ms. Jamison received the Paul Robeson award from the Actors’ Equity Association in recognition of her outstanding contributions to the performing arts and commitment to the right of all people to live in dignity and peace.

Today, Judith Jamison presides over a renewed Ailey organization, artistically and fiscally invigorated. Her presence has been a catalyst, propelling the organization in new directions: the development of the Women’s Choreography Initiative; performances at the 1996 Atlanta Olympic Games and the 2002 Cultural Olympiad in Salt Lake City; and two unprecedented engagements in South Africa. Most recently, she lead the Company through historic performances at the White Nights Festival in St. Petersburg, Russia. Ms. Jamison has continued Mr. Ailey’s practice of showcasing the talents of emerging choreographers from within the ranks of the Company. As Artistic Director of The Aliley School, the official school of Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, she has helped to implement a multicultural curriculum includingalsa and the dances of West Africa and South India. She is an advocate for education in the arts and was a guiding force in establishing the BFA program with The Aliley School and Fordham University, which offers a unique combination of world-class dance training and a superior liberal arts education. Following the tradition of Alvin Ailey, Ms. Jamison is dedicated to asserting the prominence of the arts in our culture, spearheading initiatives to bring dance into the community and programs that introduce children to the arts. She remains committed to promoting the significance of the Aliley legacy—dance as a medium for social change and a vehicle of understanding—deeply committed to continuing this work and fearlessly reaching into the future. The move to Ailey’s permanent home, a state-of-the-art building located at 55th Street and Ninth Avenue in Manhattan, was the realization of a long-awaited dream.
