Synopsis

Romeo & Juliet, On Motifs of Shakespeare

Prologue
Verona. A public place.
Romeo pines over the chaste Rosaline.

Act I
The street.
The Montagues and Capulets quarrel. Benvolio attempts to stop the violence. Tybalt bullies Benvolio. Capulet and Montague themselves join the fray. Prince Escalus enters, stops the fight, and declares a death sentence for anyone caught fighting again. The crowd breaks up. The Montagues show concern for their son.

House of the Capulets.
Capulet promises Juliet’s hand to Paris. Juliet, her nurse and her mother prepare for the ball. In masks, Benvolio, Mercutio and Romeo sneak into the party. Mercutio warns Romeo of love’s potent spell. Romeo and Juliet fall in love at first sight. Tybalt recognizes Romeo and demands his removal. Capulet dismisses Tybalt, who vows revenge on Romeo. After the ball, Romeo slips back into the house. He and Juliet pledge their love and promise to be wed.

Act II
The square. A festival.
Romeo thinks only of Juliet, to his friends’ amusement. The nurse leads a dance. Mercutio teases her. She gives Romeo Juliet’s ring to confirm their engagement. Romeo runs off to meet his betrothed. At Friar Laurence’s.
Friar Laurence welcomes Juliet and listens to her passionate story. He suggests a sleeping potion to simulate death.

Juliet’s bedroom.
Juliet declares to her parents a newfound acceptance of Paris’ proposal. They leave, ecstatic. Juliet drinks the potion and enters a deep sleep. In the morning, Paris presents wedding gifts to the family: jewels, carpets and liquors. The nurse and Lady Capulet, getting no response from Juliet, conclude that she has died. In grief, everyone rushes from the room.

Act IV
Juliet’s bedroom.
Romeo returns. He goes to Juliet, sees that she must be dead, and makes to kill himself. Friar Laurence intercedes. Juliet gradually revives. Friar Laurence summon the townspeople while the lovers slip away. Everyone rushes into the empty room. Friar Laurence indicates the direction in which the couple has fled. Montagues and Capulets rescind their old vendetta.

Elsewhere.

Running time is approximately two hours and 55 minutes, including two intermissions.

About the Artists

Mark Morris was born on August 29, 1956, in Seattle, Washington, where he studied as a young man with Verla Flowers and Perry Brunson. In the early years of his career, he performed with Lar Lubovitch, Hannah Kahn, Laura Dean, Eliot Feld and the Koleda Balkan Dance Ensemble. He formed the Mark Morris Dance Group in 1980, and has since created more than 120 works for the company. From 1988 to 1991, he was director of dance at the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels, the national opera house of Belgium. Among the works created during his tenure there were three evening-length dances: The Hard Nut, L’Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato, and Didon and Aeneas. In 1990, he founded the White Oak Dance Project with Mikhail Baryshnikov. Morris is also much in demand as a ballet choreographer. He has created six works for the San Francisco Ballet since 1994 and received commissions from American Ballet Theatre and the Boston Ballet, among others. His work is also in the repertory of the Pacific Northwest Ballet, Dutch National Ballet, New Zealand Ballet, Houston Ballet, English National Ballet and the Royal Ballet, Covent Garden. Mr. Morris is noted for his meticulousness; he has been described as “undeviating in his devotion to music.” He has worked extensively in opera, directing and choreographing productions for the Metropolitan Opera, New York City Opera, English National Opera and the Royal Opera, Covent Garden. Mr. Morris was named a Fellow of the MacArthur Foundation in 1991. He has received eight honorary doctorates to date. In 2006, Morris received the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs Mayor’s Award for Arts and Culture and a WQXR Gramophone Special Recognition Award. He is the subject of a biography by Joan Acocella (Farrar, Straus and Giroux, 1993), and Marlowe & Company published a volume of photographs and critical essays entitled Mark Morris: L’Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato: A Celebration. Mr. Morris is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and

Sergey Prokofiev (1891–1953) grew up aspiring to perpetuate the illustrious Russian musical tradition of Tchaikovsky and of his teacher Rimsky-Korsakov. Life, however, unfolded rather differently. After enjoying great success as a dynamic piano virtuoso and fresh new composer, Prokofiev left Russia in 1918. He spent the next 18 years in America and France, soaking in the latest developments in the Western concert tradition, as well as musical currents in jazz, Hollywood and Broadway. In 1936, at the most inopportune of times and for reasons still hotly debated, Prokofiev chose to move back to the Soviet Union with his Spanish-born wife and their two young sons. Although he wrote many of his greatest works during his more than two decades back home, he constantly had to juggle artistic mission and political compromise. Prokofiev excelled in an astonishing range of genres, from piano and chamber music, to symphonies, concertos, ballets, operas and film scores. A composer with extraordinary melodic gifts, he ultimately demonstrated that innovation in music need not come at the expense of accessibility and that popular art can also be ennobling art. While grappling with political pressures—both musical and practical—he remained profoundly musical and that popular art can also be ennobling art. The Mark Morris Dance Group was formed in 1980 and gave its first performance that year in New York City. The company’s touring schedule steadily expanded to include cities both in the United States and in Europe, and in 1986 it made its first national television program for the PBS series Dance in America. In 1988, MMDG was invited to become the national dance company of Belgium, and spent three years in residence at the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels. The company returned to the United States in 1991 as one of the world’s leading dance companies, performing across the country and at major international festivals.

Based in Brooklyn, New York, the company has maintained and strengthened its ties to several cities around the world, most notably its West Coast home, Cal Performances in Berkeley, California; and its Midwest home, the Krannert Center for the Performing Arts in Urbana, Illinois. MMDG also appears regularly in New York City; Boston; Fairfax, Virginia; Seattle; and at the Jacob’s Pillow Dance Festival in Becket, Massachusetts. MMDG made its Mostly Mozart Festival debut in 2002 and its Tanglewood Music Festival debut in 2003 and has since been invited to both festivals annually. The company’s London seasons have garnered two Laurence Olivier Awards.

MMDG is noted for its commitment to live music, a feature of every performance on its full international touring schedule since 1996. MMDG collaborates with leading orchestras, opera companies and musicians including cellist Yo-Yo Ma in the Emmy Award-winning film Falling Down Stairs (1997); Indian composer Zakir Hussain, Mr. Ma and jazz pianist Ethan Iverson in Kolam (2002); The Bad Plus in Violet Cosmos (2004); pianists Emanuel Ax, Garrick Ohlsson and Yoko Nozaki for Mozart Dances (2006); and with the English National Opera in Four Saints in Three Acts (2000) and King Arthur (2006), among others. MMDG’s film and television projects also include Dido and Aeneas, The Hard Nut and two documentaries for the United Kingdom’s South Bank Show.

In fall 2001, MMDG opened the Mark Morris Dance Center in Brooklyn, housing rehearsal space for the dance community, outreach programs for local children, as well as a school offering dance classes to students of all ages.

Stefan Asbury (conductor) is in great demand with major orchestras, ensembles and festivals worldwide. In the the 2007–2008 season, he assumed the position of Artist in Association with Tapiola Sinfonietta, with whom he conducts four projects per season. He has served on the faculty of the Tanglewood Music Center since 1995 and was Associate Director of New Music Activities from 1999–2005; he currently holds the Sana H. Sabbagh master teacher chair on the Conducting Faculty. He held the post of first Music Director of the Remix Ensemble Casa da Musica Porto from 2001–2005, working with them to commission new works and programming an innovative mix of jazz, film and music theatre. Mr. Asbury enjoys collaborations with orchestras such as WDR Cologne, Frankfurt Radio Symphony Orchestra, NDR Hamburg, Seoul Philharmonic, RAI Turin, SWR Freiburg/Baden-Baden and RSO Wien, and is a regular guest conductor at such festivals as Festival d’Automne, Munich Biennale, Wien Modern and Wiener Festwochen, Salzburg Festival and Venice Biennale. Most recently, he made his debuts with the Concertgebouw Amsterdam, Bayerischer Rundfunk and Dresden Philharmonie. He returns to Dresden Philharmonie this season to conduct Messiaen’s Cimetières. In the opera world, Mr. Asbury conducts John Adams’ A Flowering Tree for the 2009 Perth International Arts Festival and recent opera productions have included Wolfgang Rihm’s Jakob Lenz for the 2008 Wiener Festwochen, a concert version of Britten’s Owen Wingrave with Tapiola Sinfonietta, the world premiere of Van Vlijmen’s Thystere with La Monnaie, Brussels, and Dutch Touring Opera and Staud’s Berenice at Munich Biennale. Stefan Asbury has particularly strong relationships with many composers including Steve Reich, Wolfgang Rihm, Rebecca Saunders, Unsuk Chin and Mark Anthony Turnage, and collaborates regularly with Ensemble Modern, Klangforum Wien, Basel Sinfonietta, Musikfabrik and London Sinfonietta. This season, Mr. Asbury continues his collaboration with the Mark Morris Dance Group in a production of Romeo & Juliet, On Motifs of Shakespeare. Mr. Asbury has released a recording of works by Unsuk Chin with Ensemble Intercontemporain on Deutsche Grammophon. His CD of music by Jonathan Harvey with the Ensemble Intercontemporain was awarded a Monde de la Musique CHOC award, his Grisey complete Espace Acoustique cycle with WDR Koln won the German music critics award. His discography also includes music by Isang Yun with Deutsches Symphonie Orchester Berlin, works by Elliott Carter with Ensemble Sospeso, portrait discs of Philip Cashian with the Birmingham Contemporary Music Group and and Rebecca Saunders with musicFabrik.

Berkeley Symphony Orchestra is under the direction of Kent Nagano, who steps down as Music Director at the end of the 2008–2009 season at the conclusion of his 20th year as Music Director; for the 2008–2009 season also sees the final three guest conductors in the search for Maestro Nagano’s successor as Music Director: William Eddins, Paul Haas and Joana Carneiro.

Berkeley Symphony Orchestra was founded in 1969 as the Berkeley Promenade Orchestra by Thomas Rarick, a young protégé of Sir Adrian Boult, the great English maestro. Reflecting the spirit of the times, the Promenade replaced tuxedos with informal dress and performed in unusual locations, such as the University Art Museum.

When Kent Nagano took over the orchestra in 1978, he charted a new course by offering innovative programming that included a good number of rarely heard 20th-century scores. Under Maestro Nagano, the orchestra also took measures to develop an image congruous with its more serious and sophisticated programming, first switching to formal concert dress and then, in 1981, changing its name to the Berkeley Symphony Orchestra. In 1989, the orchestra moved from the 750-seat First Congregational Church to UC Berkeley’s 2,050-seat Zellerbach Hall.

In 1984, Berkeley Symphony’s performances of works by Frank Zappa, featuring an augmented orchestra, life-sized puppets and moving stage sets, brought the orchestra international attention. Maestro Nagano and the orchestra have also championed several young composers, including Thomas Adès, whose opera, Powder Her Face, was performed here in a concert version in 1997, well before its much-heralded performances in Brooklyn, London and Chicago.

The orchestra has received ASCAP Awards for Adventurous Programming of Contemporary Music in five out of the past six seasons. They have recorded music by William Kraft, Jeff Beal, Peter Scott Lewis and Frank Martin for Harmonia Mundi, Tri-loka and New Albion records, respectively. Their most recent CD is The Butterfly Tree, released in 2003 and featuring Jean-Pascal Beutin’s musical rendition of the two years Julia Butterfly Hill spent on a tiny platform 180 feet up in a redwood tree that was slated to be felled. The story is narrated by Ms. Hill and sung by folk music legend Joan Baez. Also on the disc is Beutin’s charming setting of The Bremen Town Musicians, narrated by noted Bay Area actress Joy Carlin.

Berkeley Symphony supports local composers through its informal Under Construction new music events at the First Congregational Church. Berkeley Symphony also serves every public elementary school in Berkeley with its year-long, award-winning Music Education Program, which provides every student with the experience of becoming a performer.

Craig Biesecker, from Waynesboro, Pennsylvania, received a BS in music education from West Chester University of Pennsylvania. While teaching music in Philadelphia, he studied ballet with John White, Margarita de Saa and Bryan Koulman and worked with choreographers Tim and Lina Early. In New York City, he has worked with Pascal Rioult, Carolyn Dorfman, New York Theater Ballet, Mark Dendy and Gerald Casel. Mr. Biesecker joined MMDG in 2003.

Samuel Black is originally from Berkeley, California, where he began studying tap at the age of 9 with Katie Maltzberger. He received his BFA in dance from SUNY Purchase, and also studied at the Rotterdamse Dansacademie, Holland. He has performed in New York with David Parker, Takehiro Uchayama and Nelly van Bommel. Mr. Black first appeared with MMDG in 2005 and became a company member in 2007.

Joe Bowie was born in Lansing, Michigan, and began dancing while attending Brown University where he graduated with honors in English and American literature. In New York, he has performed in the works of Robert Wilson and Ulysses Dove and also danced with the Paul Taylor Dance Company for two years before going to Belgium in 1989 to work with Mark Morris.

Elisa Clark received her early training from the Maryland Youth Ballet and her BFA from The Juilliard School, under the direction of Benjamin Harkavy. She has danced with the Lar Lubovitch Dance Company, Nederlands Dans Theater, Peridance Ensemble and Battleworks Dance Company. Clark has staged works by Robert Battle, David Parsons, Igil Perry and Adam Hougland with various schools and companies, including the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater. She has been on the faculty of the American Dance Festival, and she currently works closely with Carolyn Adams and the American Dance Legacy Institute, as well as serves on an advisory panel for Capezio. Ms. Clark first appeared with MMDG in L’Allegro in 2005 and joined the company in 2006.

Amber Darragh is originally from Newport, Oregon, where she began her dance training with Nancy Mittelman. She received her BFA from The Juilliard School in 1999 and then danced with the Limón Dance Company for two years. She is a recipient of the 2001 Princess Grace Award and has presented her own choreography both in New York and abroad. Ms. Darragh joined MMDG in 2001.

Rita Donahue was born and raised in Fairfax, Virginia, and attended George Mason University, where she graduated with honors in dance and English in 2002. She danced with bopi’s black sheep / dances by kraig patterson before joining MMDG in 2003.
About the Artists

Domingo Estrada, Jr., a native of Victoria, Texas, recently earned a BFA in ballet and modern dance at Texas Christian University. He currently works with choreographers Leslie Scott, BODYart Dance; Mary Seidman, Mary Seidman and Dancers; and Christian von Howard, Von Howard Project. He made his debut with the Mark Morris Dance Group during this season’s The Hard Nut at Cal Performances, Berkeley. Mr. Estrada would like to thank God, his family and all who support his passion.

Julie Fiorenza was born in South Korea and grew up in Massachusetts where she trained at the Academy of Dance Arts and Boston Ballet. In 2004, she graduated with honors from the Aliley/Fordham BFA program and was named a Liberace scholar. Since then, she has performed and taught throughout the country as a member of Ailey II and the Nai-Ni Chen Dance Company and has also danced with Adams Company Dance and Company XIV. Last summer, Ms. Fiorenza played the lead dance role of Eliza in King and I at the Ogunquit Playhouse in Maine. This is her first time working with MMDG, and she is thrilled to have been given the opportunity to be a part of this special production.

Lesley Garrison grew up in Swansea, Illinois, and received much of her early training at the Center of Creative Arts in St. Louis. She is a 2007 graduate of the Conservatory of Dance at the State University of New York at Purchase. She has also studied at Interlochen Arts Academy, Rotterdam Dansacademie, Jacob’s Pillow and The Professional Project. She has performed with the Kevin Wynn Collection, Nelly van Bommel’s NOA Dance and Sidra Bell Dance New York. She performed with MMDG for the first time last season in the Seattle performances of L’Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato.

Shawn Gannon received his early dance training with Dorothy Wescott Rosen and first danced with MMDG from 1994 to 2004. Originally from Dover, New Jersey, he was a featured soloist in Resurrection (2002) and was part of the original cast for The Argument (1998), and he danced the bird solo in L’Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato. Along with Morris, Mr. Gannon has the distinct honor of being one of a handful of men to have performed Ted Shawn’s historical solo, Mevlevi Dervish. He has also performed with Lee Theodore’s Dance Machine, Mark Dendy Dance Group, Laura Dean Dancers and Musicians, and Jane Comfort and Company.

Lauren Grant, born and raised in Highland Park, Illinois, has danced with the Mark Morris Dance Group since 1996. She has appeared in 40 of Morris’s works and performs leading roles in The Hard Nut and Mozart Dances. Ms. Grant has been featured in Time Out New York, Dance Magazine and a recently published book, Meet the Dancers, as well as the subject of a photograph by Annie Leibovitz. She holds a BFA from NYU’s Tisch School of the Arts and teaches dance internationally. Ms. Grant is married to fellow dancer David Leventhal.

Laurel Lynch began her dance training in Petaluma, California. After a few too many Nutcrackers, she moved to New York to attend The Juilliard School, where she performed works by Robert Battle, Margie Gillis, José Limón and Ohad Naharin. Since graduation in May 2003, Ms. Lynch has danced for Dušan Týnek Dance Theatre, Sue Bernhard Danceworks, Pat Catterson, Stephan Koplowitz and T.E.A. (Transpersonal Education and Art). She has performed at the Festival Oltre Passo in Lecce, Italy, and appeared as a guest artist with Petaluma City Ballet. Ms. Lynch performed with MMDG as an apprentice in 2006 and became a company member in 2007.

Claudia MacPherson was born in Wisconsin, but she calls Kentucky home. She received her BFA in dance from Alvin Ailey/Fordham University, where she worked with Nathan Trice, Jennifer Muller and Ron Brown, among others, and performed at City Center in Alvin Ailey’s Memoria. She has also worked with Eva Dean Dance, the Kevin Wynn Collection, SuriCo and the Tattooed Ballerinas. She first appeared with MMDG in The Hard Nut last season.

David Leventhal, raised in Newton, Massachusetts, has danced with the Mark Morris Dance Group since 1997. He studied at Boston Ballet School and has danced with José Mateo’s Ballet Theatre and the companies of Marcus Schulkind, Richard Colton/Amy Spencer, Zvi Gotheiner, Neta Pulvermacher and Ben Munisteri. He graduated with honors in English literature from Brown University in 1995. Mr. Leventhal teaches master classes in technique and repertory at schools and colleges around the country, and he gives classes regularly at MMDG’s school, including one for people with Parkinson’s disease. He is married to fellow dancer Lauren Grant.

Braden McDonald received his BFA from The Juilliard School in 1997. He danced with the Limón Dance Company for three years and was the recipient of the 1998 Princess Grace Award. He has choreographed and presented his own works internationally, served as choreographer for seven Juilliard Opera Company productions under director Frank Corsaro, and was the choreographic assistant to Donald McKayle at the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater. Mr. McDonald joined MMDG in 2000.
