

Sunday, October 6, 2019, 7pm
Zellerbach Hall

Maggie Haberman

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

---

Maggie Haberman, one of the most influential voices in national affairs journalism today, opens audiences' eyes with a remarkably informed perspective on President Trump, based on their complex relationship and her history of covering him. As a New York Times White House correspondent, she examines Trump's influence on key issues affecting all Americans and his battles with the American press.

Also a CNN political analyst, Haberman has established herself as one of the country's most respected journalists and reliable resources for expert commentary on current events and national issues. A seasoned veteran of political reporting, she covered City Hall for the New York Daily News, and the 2008 US Presidential campaign and other political races for the New York Post, as well as national affairs as a senior reporter for Politico.

In 2018, Haberman and her team at the New York Times received the Pulitzer Prize for National Reporting for their coverage of the Trump administration and alleged Russian interference in the 2016 US presidential campaign, and the Aldo Beckman Award from the White House Correspondents' Association. Her stories on covering a contentious administration offer a revealing insider's look at what is sure to be known as our country's most explosive era of modern journalism.

Cal Performances' 2019–20 season is sponsored by Wells Fargo.