Berkeley, September 23, 2020 — Cal Performances at UC Berkeley presents Darcy James Argue's Secret Society performing Real Enemies in a virtual premiere that will begin streaming on Wednesday, October 21 at 7pm (PDT). The performance is one of 16 new, professionally produced full-length performances in the Cal Performances at Home performing arts streaming series. The recording of a new performance will premiere each week beginning October 1, 2020 through January 14, 2021. On the evenings of each streaming premiere, a special digital "watch party" will feature a participatory live chat element. More information about Cal Performances at Home can be found at <https://calperformances.org/at-home/>.

WHO Celebrated composer and bandleader Darcy James Argue's Secret Society is a Grammy-nominated, 18-piece big band of New York's best and brightest improvisers. For Cal Performances at Home, Argue—in collaboration with co-creators Isaac Butler (writer/director) and Peter Nigrini (video designer)—has gone back into the recording studio with Secret Society to create a made-for-film adaptation of Real Enemies—a big band jazz-theater work mixing multi-channel video, text, and music to explore conspiracy theories in the American psyche and the nature of belief.

WHAT Professionally produced, full-length streaming performance.

Program: Real Enemies

This performance is part of the Illuminations: Fact or Fiction series.

WHEN Streaming premiere Wednesday, October 21 at 7pm (PDT). Following the premiere, this performance will be available to view on demand for three months. (Subject to change.)

CAL PERFORMANCES PRESENTS

STREAM PREMIERE

Wednesday, October 21, 7pm (PDT)

Darcy James Argue’s Secret Society

Real Enemies

Program:

Celebrated composer and bandleader Darcy James Argue’s Secret Society is a Grammy-nominated, 18-piece big band of New York’s best and brightest improvisers. For Cal Performances at Home, Argue, librettist Isaac Butler, and film director Peter Nigrini have gone back into the recording studio with the musicians to create an immersive made-for-video adaptation of Argue’s acclaimed Real Enemies—a multimedia work mixing visuals, text, and music to explore the American fascination with conspiracy theories. Taking his title from a 2009 book by Kathryn Olmsted (Real Enemies: Conspiracy Theories and American Democracy, World War I to 9/11), Argue has created a multmovement suite packed with plots and paranoia, “a work of furious ambition that feels deeply in tune with our present moment” (The New York Times). Argue’s eclectic music combines traditional jazz with postwar serialism, Latin rhythms, film noir orchestrations, and rock sonorities, deploying a clever mix of distinctly American musical styles to explore everything from the Red Scare to the surveillance state, mind control to fake moon landings, and FBI schemes to alien sightings.

This performance is part of the Illuminations: Fact or Fiction series.

Tickets: $15 for a single viewer, $30 for two viewers, and $60 per household viewing. $5 tickets are available for UC Berkeley students.

Following the premiere, this performance will be available to view on demand for three months. (Subject to change.) Pre-performance programming begins at 6pm (PDT).
