

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: July 20, 2021

Updated as of September 15, 2021 in red

CONTACT: publicrelations@calperformances.org

Press Room

CAL PERFORMANCES 2021–22 CALENDAR

Performance Venues

Zellerbach Hall – Bancroft Way at Dana Street, UC Berkeley campus
Zellerbach Playhouse – Bancroft Way at Dana Street, UC Berkeley campus
Hertz Hall – Bancroft Way at College Avenue, UC Berkeley campus
Hearst Greek Theatre – 2001 Gayley Road, UC Berkeley campus
First Congregational Church – 2345 Channing Way, Berkeley

Ticket Information

Subscription packages for Cal Performances’ 2021–22 season go on sale beginning Tuesday, August 3, at noon. Single tickets go on sale to the general public on Friday, August 27, at noon.

Tickets for Not Our First Goat Rodeo are on sale now.

Tickets to Cal Performances are available through the Ticket Office at Zellerbach Hall at (510) 642-9988, and at calperformances.org.

AUGUST 2021

Saturday, August 21, 8pm

Greek Theatre

Special Event

Not Our First Goat Rodeo

Yo-Yo Ma, cello

Stuart Duncan, fiddle

Edgar Meyer, bass

Chris Thile, mandolin

with guest Aoife O’Donovan, vocals

Program: For the first time in nearly a decade, the musicians of the original Goat Rodeo Sessions—Yo-Yo Ma on cello, Stuart Duncan on fiddle, Edgar Meyer on bass, and Chris Thile on mandolin—share a stage in selections that combine their diverse backgrounds in classical, folk, and bluegrass music to create a sound that’s part composed, part improvised, and uniquely American. The group likens playing the challenging music to a “goat rodeo,” airplane pilots’ slang for a situation so nearly unmanageable that countless parts must come together perfectly in order to avoid disaster.

Ma, Duncan, Meyer and Thile are joined by featured vocalist Aoife O’Donovan, who also appears on last year’s recording Not Our First Goat Rodeo, the follow-up to their double-Grammy winning 2011 debut, for this special performance at UC Berkeley’s Greek Theatre.

Tickets: $50-$250 (prices subject to change)

SEPTEMBER 2021

Wednesday, September 29, 4:30–5pm (PDT)

Online

CAL PERFORMANCES, THE GOLDMAN SCHOOL'S CENTER FOR SECURITY IN POLITICS, THE INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES, AND INVESTIGATIVE STUDIOS PRESENT A LIVESTREAMED PANEL DISCUSSION

9/11: A Turning Point

Featuring: Lowell Bergman (moderator), Janet Napolitano, Fawzia Koofi, Brian Knappenberger, Mo Naqvi, Matt Pottinger, Jane Ferguson, Frances Townsend, Dale Watson, and John Sopko

Program: This first Illuminations: “Place and Displacement” event of the season features a special panel discussion with the filmmakers and key participants of Netflix’s new five-part documentary series Turning Point: 9/11 and the War on Terror, which chronicles why 9/11 happened and the day’s consequences. Moderated by UC Berkeley’s Lowell Bergman, emeritus professor of journalism and an executive producer of the Netflix series, the discussion will also feature special guest commentator Janet Napolitano, the former Secretary of Homeland Security and president of the University of California.

This livestream event is hosted by Cal Performances in partnership with the Goldman School's Center for Security in Politics, the Institute of International Studies at UC Berkeley, and Investigative Studios, a non-profit production company.

Cal Performances’ 2021–22 Illuminations: “Place and Displacement” series of programming examines the fraught and often devastating effects of migration, exile, dislocation, and separation such as those caused by the War on Terror. It includes five main-stage performances and related online and in-person programs with artists, creators, scholars, activists, and thinkers who are part of the outstanding brain trust at UC Berkeley.

Tickets: This online livestreamed conversation is free and open to the public. Advance registration is recommended, and questions for the participants can be submitted at calperformances.org/9-11-turning-point

OCTOBER 2021

Sunday, October 3, 3pm

Zellerbach Hall

Recital

Tessa Lark, violin

Amy Yang, piano

Program:

Beethoven/Violin Sonata in G major, Op. 30 no. 3

Tessa Lark/Jig and Pop

Michael Torke/Spoon Bread

John Corigliano/STOMP

Lewis/Django

Ravel/Violin Sonata in G major

Grammy-nominated violinist Tessa Lark returns after her season-opening Cal Performances at Home online debut last fall, with her in-person Berkeley debut.

Fluent in both classical and contemporary concert repertoire, Lark is also an accomplished bluegrass and folk music fiddler. Here she offers a program that speaks to her singular strengths: Beethoven's virtuosic Sonata No. 3 from Op. 30 calls for a sprightly athleticism; Michael Torke's Spoon Bread, named after a popular treat in Lark's native Kentucky, was composed specifically for her genre-bending talents; John Corigliano's STOMP is a solo study modeled on American fiddle music; and Ravel's dazzling and delicate Violin Sonata in G major is infused with American jazz and blues. Lark rounds out the program with her own composition Jig and Pop and an arrangement of John Lewis' popular Django. She is joined by pianist Amy Yang, who also accompanied Lark on her acclaimed 2019 debut recording, Fantasy.

Tickets: $46–$68 (prices subject to change)

Saturday, October 9, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Jazz

Bria Skonberg

Program: Trumpeter, singer, and songwriter Bria Skonberg has been described as one of the “most versatile and imposing musicians of her generation” (The Wall Street Journal). Her latest record, Nothing Never Happens, offers originals and creative arrangements of music by Queen, the Beatles, Duke Ellington, and more. She made her UC Berkeley debut as part of Cal Performances at Home this past winter, and now returns for a live, in-person set with her band.

Tickets: $46–$68 (prices subject to change)

Sunday, October 10, 3pm

Zellerbach Hall

Chamber Music

Danish String Quartet

Program:

Brent Sørensen/New Work (US Premiere, Cal Performances Co-commission)

Schubert/String Quartet in G major, D. 887

The Danish String Quartet returns for the first of two Berkeley concerts this season, pairing a Schubert string quartet with a newly commissioned work as part of its Doppelgänger project, a three-season initiative co-commissioned by Cal Performances. Schubert's final quartet in G major is matched here with its musical "double," a new quartet by Danish composer Bent Sørensen, a winner of the 2018 Grawemeyer Award for Music Composition, whose work explores post-Romantic colors and textures.

Tickets: $58–$92 (prices subject to change)

Sunday, October 17, 3pm

Zellerbach Hall

Chamber Music

Takács Quartet

Program:

Haydn/String Quartet in F minor, Op. 20, No. 5

Coleridge-Taylor/Five Fantasiestücke, Op. 5

Beethoven/String Quartet in A minor, Op. 132

In the first of two concerts this season, the Takács Quartet performs works by Haydn, Beethoven, and Samuel Coleridge-Taylor. The set of six Op. 20 string quartets by Haydn are considered a milestone in the history of composition; in these complex works the quartet itself began as a singular expressive art form. Coleridge-Taylor's Five Fantasiestücke are character pieces composed near the turn of the 19th century, when the composer was just a teenager—well before he would achieve renown with his large-scale orchestral and choral works. By contrast, Beethoven was at the end of his life when he wrote the A minor quartet, best known for its technically demanding slow third movement, the "Holy Song of Thanksgiving." The Takács' recording of the late Beethoven quartets more than a dozen years ago became a classic: "an exceptional achievement...every detail...is utterly organic and the ensemble at times almost subliminally precise" (The Guardian).

Tickets: $74–$98 (prices subject to change)

Thursday, October 21, 7:30pm

Zellerbach Hall

Friday, October 22, 8pm

Dance

Pilobolus

BIG FIVE-OH!

Program: For five decades, the dancers and acrobats of Pilobolus have entranced audiences with their unique version of dance theater. Contorting, bending, and partnering to transform themselves into a phantasmagoria of animals, spirits, and monsters, the Pilobolus dancers tell otherworldly stories through the strength and precision of their bodies, enhanced by magical stage effects. This 50th anniversary celebration includes Untitled, Megawatt, and signature shadow works.

Tickets: $36–$78 (prices subject to change)

Sunday, October 24, 3pm

Zellerbach Hall

Recital

Jonas Kaufmann, tenor

Helmut Deutsch, piano

Program: German tenor Jonas Kaufmann is known for his versatility, and combining power with finesse, as demonstrated in roles like Don José in Carmen, Siegmund in Die Walküre, and the title roles in Otello, Andrea Chénier, and Don Carlos. In this rare US recital—his first UC Berkeley appearance since his Bay Area debut 10 years ago—Kaufmann returns with a program showcasing his love of lieder, along with a rewarding mix of French, German, and Italian song.

Tickets: $50–$175 (prices subject to change)

Friday, October 29, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Pop

Angélique Kidjo

Remain in Light

Program: For one of her latest recording projects, global pop star and four-time Grammy Award winner Angélique Kidjo partnered with producer Jeff Bhasker (Rihanna, Kanye West, Drake, Jay-Z) to revisit, reimagine, and repatriate the Talking Heads' landmark 1980 album Remain in Light. Kidjo, Cal Performances' artist-in-residence for the 2021–22 season, is an artist with a gift for assimilating a wide range of music into a sound that is completely her own, always infused with her powerfully positive message. Here, she connects with the record's original Afropop influences and filters its new-wave sensibility through her own musical interests—which span the African continent—mining the songs for topics that resonate with her today and adding her own lyrics in languages from her home country of Benin.

Tickets: $36–$96 (prices subject to change)

Sunday October 31, 3pm

Zellerbach Hall

Theater

Manual Cinema

Frankenstein (Cal Performances Co-commission)

Program: Manual Cinema returns to Berkeley with a live production of Frankenstein, a Cal Performances co-commission which was adapted for video by the collective of musicians, composers, theater artists, and filmmakers last fall for Cal Performances at Home. Frankenstein weaves the plot of Mary Shelley’s classic story with themes of desire, birth, and loss from the author’s own biography. Manual Cinema is known for creating handmade and imaginative works of live cinema, and in Frankenstein actors join puppeteers onstage, creating a silent animated film in real time alongside an immersive score performed live by four musicians.

Tickets: $48–$82 (prices subject to change)

NOVEMBER 2021

Saturday, November 6, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Dance

Ballet Hispánico

Noche de Oro – A Celebration of 50 Years!

Program:

Vicente Nebrada/Arabesque (Bay Area Premiere; 1984; music: Enrique Granados)

Annabelle Lopez Ochoa/Tiburones (2019; music: Pérez Prado, Dizzy Gillespie, and The Funky Lowlives)

Gustavo Ramírez Sansano/18+1 (2012; music: Pérez Prado)

Cal Performances welcomes New York’s Ballet Hispánico in its Berkeley debut, with a program of works by an intergenerational cadre of choreographers who have been part of the company’s 50-year history. Vicente Nebrada’s Arabesque is an elegant suite of lush balletic contemporary dances with traces of Flamenco. Gustavo Ramírez Sansano created 18+1 to celebrate his personal career milestone of making work for 18 years, his choreography inspired by the mambo music by Pérez Prado. Annabelle Lopez Ochoa’s Tiburones addresses the discrimination and stereotypes placed upon Latinx culture, and the role the media plays in diminishing the voices of Latinx artists

Tickets: $32–$82 (prices subject to change)

Sunday, November 7, 3pm

Zellerbach Hall

Early Music

The English Concert

Harry Bicket, artistic director

Karina Gauvin (Alcina), sopran

Lucy Crowe (Morgana), sopran

Elizabeth DeShong (Bradamante), mezzo-sopran

Paula Murrihy (Ruggiero), mezzo-sopran

Alek Shrader (Oronte), teno

Wojtek Gierlach (Melisso), bas

Program:

Handel/ Alcina, HWV 3

London's Handel specialists The English Concert, directed by conductor Harry Bicket, returns to Cal Performances with a concert performance of Handel's Alcina. An allegorical fantasy with love triangles and mistaken and misrepresented identities, Alcina takes place on an enchanted island where discarded lovers are transformed into wild beasts and trees. Canadian soprano Karina Gauvin, one of the world's leading Baroque interpreters, makes her Cal Performances debut singing the title role, portraying Handel's sorceress; she is joined by an international cast of soloists in their Cal Performances debuts: soprano Lucy Crowe as Morgana, mezzo-soprano Elizabeth DeShong as Bradamante, mezzo-soprano Paula Murrihy as Ruggiero, tenor Alek Shrader as Oronte, and bass Wojtek Gierlach as Melisso.

Tickets: $42–$125 (prices subject to change)

Saturday, November 11, 7:30pm

Zellerbach Hall

Recital

Avi Avital, mandolin

Miloš Karadaglić, guitar

Program:

Bach/Italian Concerto in F major, BWV 971

Schubert/Selected song transcriptions

Villa-Lobos/Bachianas Brasileiras No. 5

Philip Glass/Metamorphosis No. IV

Glass/Etude No. 9

New Work TBA (Cal Performances Co-Commission)

Israeli mandolin player Avi Avital was the first soloist on his instrument to be nominated for a classical Grammy Award; the Montenegrin guitarist Miloš Karadaglić has been called “one of the most exciting and communicative classical guitarists today” (The New York Times). Both artists have revitalized the repertoire performed on their instruments, attracting a new generation of listeners through inventive programs and sheer instrumental prowess. Together in Berkeley for the first time as a duo, Avital and Karadaglić perform a program of arrangements and transcriptions for strummed and plucked strings, from a Bach keyboard work to a set of instrumental transcriptions of Schubert songs, to the fifth section from Villa-Lobos’ Bachianas Brasileiras. The duo also performs two Philip Glass piano compositions, and a new work to be announced.

Tickets: $48–$78 (prices subject to change)

Friday, November 12, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Jazz

Aaron Diehl Trio

Mirror

Aaron Diehl, piano

Paul Sikivie, bass

Aaron Kimmel, drums

Program: Cal Performances audiences will recognize Aaron Diehl as the pianist and music director for many of Cécile McLorin Salvant’s ensembles, and from several appearances this past year in the Now, More than Ever blog. He returns this season for his Berkeley debut as a bandleader, leading his own trio in a new project showcasing his fluency in both classical repertoire and jazz improvisation. As a concert soloist, Diehl performed Gershwin’s Piano Concerto in F with the New York Philharmonic and the Cleveland Orchestra several seasons ago, and critics have raved over his meticulously styled recordings, which combine original compositions with jazz tunes by John Lewis and Sir Roland Hanna and concert works by Philip Glass and Sergei Prokofiev. With Mirror, the pianist explores the affinities of the counterpoint in Bach’s music with bebop vocabulary, interspersing solo selections from The Well-Tempered Clavier with original compositions for jazz trio in corresponding keys.

Tickets: $42–$68 (prices subject to change)

Saturday, November 13, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Recital

Leonidas Kavakos, violin

Yuja Wang, piano

Program:

Bach/Violin Sonata No. 3 in E major, BWV 1016

Shostakovich/Violin Sonata in G major, Op. 134

Bach/Violin Sonata No. 1 in B minor, BWV 1014
Busoni/Violin Sonata No. 2 in E minor, Op. 36a

Chinese pianist Yuja Wang, known for her stage presence and facility at the keyboard, joins forces with Greek violinist Leonidas Kavakos for their first joint appearance in Berkeley. Here they perform two of Bach's violin sonatas, complemented by two works that owe a debt to Bach's masterful approach to counterpoint: Shostakovich's sonata from 1968, and Ferruccio Busoni's rarely heard second sonata, which borrows a theme from the Bach chorale Wie wohl ist mir.

Tickets: $38–$110 (prices subject to change)

Sunday, November 14, 3pm

Zellerbach Hall

Recital

David Finckel, cello

Wu Han, piano

Program:

Bach/Sonata for Viola da gamba and Keyboard in G major, BWV 1027

Mendelssohn/Cello Sonata in D major, Op. 58

Debussy/Cello Sonata in D minor

Britten/Cello Sonata in C major, Op. 65

Returning after their two-recital program of the complete Beethoven cello sonatas for Cal Performances at Home last fall, the chamber duo of cellist David Finckel and pianist Wu Han present a program of works spanning centuries. Progressing chronologically, they tackle Bach's G major sonata for viola da gamba and cembalo—the ancestors of the cello and piano—and continue to Mendelssohn's second sonata, and Debussy's cello sonata. The program concludes with Britten's sonata composed for Mstislav Rostropovich, who as a mentor to Finckel, shared his insight into the work's conception with his student.

Tickets: $48–$78 (prices subject to change)

Saturday, November 27, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

EVENT CANCELLED

Holiday

Vienna Boys Choir

Christmas in Vienna

Program: The world-renowned Vienna Boys Choir returns to Berkeley on Thanksgiving weekend for a program of Austrian folk songs, classical masterpieces, and Christmas hymns and carols from around the world, including favorites like “Hark! The Herald Angels Sing,” “Joy to the World,” “White Christmas,” and their very own rendition of “Stille Nacht,” the original Viennese version of ~~“Silent Night.” The choir is comprised of boys aged 9–13, who hail from more than a dozen countries and carry on a six-century Viennese choral tradition.~~

~~Tickets: $40–$108 (prices subject to change)~~

DECEMBER 2021

Thursday, December 2, 7:30pm

Zellerbach Hall

New Music

Kronos Quartet

Mahsa Vahdat, guest vocalist

Placeless

Program: Kronos Quartet returns with the newest edition of its 50 for the Future project. With 40 compositions commissioned, premiered, and shared to date, the ongoing multiyear project features new works by an international and diverse group of composers, made available online with the goal of training students and emerging professionals in contemporary approaches to string quartet music. This concert features new works by Terry Riley and Cal Performances’ 2021–22 artist-in-residence, Angélique Kidjo. For the second half of this concert, Kronos is joined by Mahsa Vahdat, a prominent performer of Persian vocal music, who collaborated with the quartet on the 2019 recording Placeless. The project features melodies Vahdat composed to classical poems by Hafez and Rumi, as well as contemporary texts by Iranian poets.

Tickets: $48–$72 (prices subject to change)

This performance is part of Cal Performances’ Illuminations: “Place and Displacement” series

Friday, December 3, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Holiday

Damien Sneed

Joy to the World: A Christmas Musical Journey

Program: Cal Performances audiences were first introduced to Damien Sneed’s artistry in the 2019–20 season, when he presented the stirring tribute We Shall Overcome: A Celebration of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Now, the musician, conductor, arranger, and producer visits with Joy to the World, a holiday concert that takes the listener through Sneed’s original arrangements of beloved gospel, jazz, and classical repertoire. Sneed is joined by a cast of 10 singers and musicians performing holiday classics such as “Silent Night,” “O Come, O Come Emmanuel,” “Joy to the World,” excerpts from Handel’s Messiah, and more.

Tickets: $34–$68 (prices subject to change)

Saturday, December 4, 8pm

Zellerbach Playhouse

New Music

Vân-Ánh Võ and Blood Moon Orchestra

Songs of Strength (World Premiere)

Program: Cal Performances audiences already know Vân-Ánh Võ through her many collaborations with Kronos Quartet—most recently performing in Jonathan Berger’s My Lai. Originally from Vietnam and based in Northern California for nearly 20 years, Võ is a virtuoso performer of the 16-string dàn tranh (zither), as well as an ensemble leader and Emmy Award-winning composer. In the world premiere of her latest project, she celebrates the voices and struggles of women and immigrants by placing the music from her native culture in conversation with contemporary sounds from around the world. Võ’s Songs of Strength features a collection of voices—Iranian singer/songwriter Mahsa Vahdat, rapper DemOne, and breakdancer Tunji, plus her multicultural Blood Moon Orchestra—with texts in English, Persian, and Vietnamese.

Tickets: $56 (prices subject to change)

Sunday, December 5, 3pm

Zellerbach Hall

Dance

Caleb Teicher & Company

Conrad Tao, piano

More Forever (Bay Area Premiere)

Program: More Forever brings together dancer and choreographer Caleb Teicher, a founding member of Dorrance Dance and two-time Bessie Award winner, with pianist and composer Conrad Tao, a recipient of the prestigious Avery Fisher Career Grant, in their Cal Performances debut. More Forever combines tap and Lindy Hop and is danced by the members of Teicher’s acclaimed company without tap shoes, in a 24-foot-square sandbox; Tao performs the piano and electronic score live.

Tickets: $32–$78 (prices subject to change)

Friday, December 10, 8pm

Zellerbach Playhouse

Jazz

Jazzmeia Horn

Program: Vocalist Jazzmeia Horn has been widely recognized for her talent, including winning the 2013 Sarah Vaughan International Jazz Vocal Competition and the 2015 Thelonious Monk Institute International Jazz Competition, as well as earning Grammy nominations for each of her full-length albums. Horn’s compositions weave the warmth and feeling of classic jazz with touches of R&B and hip-hop, all held together by her fleet scatting and intuitive vocal phrasing. Berkeley audiences were introduced to Horn's artistry in her Cal Performances at Home video last fall, and she returns this season for her in-person Cal Performances debut. For her latest project, developed during the pandemic, Horn has crafted a new set of songs that offer a positive message of triumph over adversity.

Tickets: $68 (prices subject to change)

Saturday, December 11, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Holiday

Canadian Brass

Making Spirits Bright for 50 Years and Counting!

Program: The Grammy-winning Canadian Brass quintet, with more than 100 recordings to its name, has been performing a range of repertoire including music of the Baroque, Dixieland, Broadway, and John Philip Sousa, for more than half a century. This special holiday program features originals like “Bach’s Bells”; favorite songs such as “White Christmas,” “The Most Wonderful Time of the Year,” and “Christmas Time Is Here”; and familiar classical, choral, and popular music arranged for brass.

Tickets: $36–$78 (prices subject to change)

Friday, December 17, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Saturday, December 18, 8pm

Sunday, December 19, 3pm

Dance

Mark Morris Dance Group

Program:

Dancing Honeymoon (1998; music: arranged by Ethan Iverson)

Jenn and Spencer (2013; music: Henry Cowell)

∇ (2001; music: Schumann)

Continuing a collaboration that dates to 1987, Mark Morris Dance Group returns to its West Coast home away from home with three distinctive works not seen on Cal Performances stages for many seasons, all of them exemplars of Morris' supreme choreographic sensitivity to musical form and expression. Dancing Honeymoon is a frolic through pop songs past, as dancers joke and whirl about with folding chairs as props. The duet Jenn and Spencer is danced to Henry Cowell's Suite for Violin and Piano, a work with both modernist and Baroque undertones. The dance ∇, an abstract and exuberant exploration of color, form, and layered textures, is set to the Piano Quintet in E-flat major by Robert Schumann.

Tickets: $42–$110 (prices subject to change)

JANUARY 2022

Sunday, January 23, 3pm

Zellerbach Hall

Jazz

Ilmar Gavilán, violin

Aldo López-Gavilán, piano

Program: Musician brothers Ilmar Gavilán and Aldo López-Gavilán grew up together as young prodigies in Havana in the 1970s. At 14, Ilmar was sent to the former Soviet Union to continue his violin studies, eventually settling as an adult in New York, where he founded the Grammy-winning Harlem Quartet. Younger brother Aldo remained in Cuba after training in London, and was mentored by the island’s revered jazz and classical piano masters, his significant talent achieving renown internationally but eluding wider recognition in the States due to the 60-year-old US embargo on Cuba. Reunited (and the subject of a 2020 documentary film, Los Hermanos), the brothers play compositions by Aldo, recorded on their duo release Hermanos, that weave together chamber sonorities with Afro-Cuban jazz and folk forms.

Tickets: $46–$68 (prices subject to change)

This performance is part of Cal Performances’ illuminations: “Place and Displacement” series

Saturday, January 29, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Sunday, January 30, 3pm

World Music

Yamato: The Drummers of Japan

Tenmei!

Program: The Yamato drummers visit from Nara Prefecture, the cradle of Japanese civilization, with a program of traditional Japanese taiko drumming. Playing drums built from animal skins and ancient tree trunks, the troupe’s drummers channel the heartbeat and spirit of their homeland. Yamato’s newest program, Tenmei! (the name translates as “destiny”), is brought to life through the performers’ theatrical fire and musical discipline and focus.

Tickets: $36–$78 (prices subject to change)

Sunday, January 30, 3pm

Hertz Hall

Recital

Paul Appleby, tenor
Conor Hanick, piano

Program:

Schumann/An den Mond, Op. 95, No.

Aufträge, Op. 77, No.

Meine Rose, Op. 90, No.

Loreley, Op. 53, No.

Einsamkeit, Op. 90, No.

Geisternähe, Op. 77, No.

Beethoven/An die ferne Geliebte, Op. 9

Schubert/An den Mond, D. 25

An die Entfernte, D. 76

Der Zwerg, D. 771

Berg/Altenberg Lieder, Op.

Schubert/Im Frühling, D. 88

Alinde, D. 90

Abendlied für die Entfernte, D. 85

Willkommen und Abschied, D. 76

Schumann/Sängers Trost, Op. 127, No.

Die Sennin, Op. 90, No.

Abendlied, Op. 107, No. 6

American tenor Paul Appleby has won fans for his lead roles in Nico Muhly's Two Boys, Stravinsky's The Rake's Progress, and Debussy's Pelléas et Mélisande at the Metropolitan Opera, and here in the Bay Area, he played the lovesick miner Joe Cannon in the world premiere production of John Adams' and Peter Sellars' Girls of the Golden West at San Francisco Opera. In his Cal Performances debut, Appleby, accompanied by pianist Conor Hanick, presents a program featuring Schumann and Schubert songs, Berg's Altenberg Lieder (traditionally performed by a mezzo-soprano), and Beethoven's lone song cycle, An die ferne Geliebte

Tickets: $68 (prices subject to change)

FEBRUARY 2022

Friday, February 4, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Saturday, February 5, 8pm

Dance

Les Ballets Trockadero de Monte Carlo

Program: The ballerinos of Les Ballets Trockadero de Monte Carlo have been charming Berkeley audiences with their singular brand of ballet satire since their campus debut in 1976. The “unspeakably talented” (Calgary Herald) all-male ballet troupe performs a sophisticated form of ballet parody en travesty; dance aficionados revel in the company’s smart send-ups of iconic repertory, and ballet “newbies” are delighted by the high-camp drama executed with flair and finesse.

Tickets: $40–$104 (prices subject to change)

Friday, February 5, 8pm

Hertz Hall

New Music

Eco Ensemble

Toshio Hosokawa Portrait Concert

David Milnes, director

Kyoko Kawamura, koto

UC Berkeley Chamber Chorus

Wei Cheng, director

Program:

Toshio Hosokawa/Koto-uta

Drawing

Singing Trees (Requiem for Toru Takemitsu)

Somon-ka (US Premiere)

Eco Ensemble, UC Berkeley’s ensemble-in-residence, specializes in performances of works by living composers and is directed by new-music champion and music department faculty member David Milnes. This season’s Cal Performances concert showcases the music of Toshio Hosokawa, among Japan's pre-eminent living composers, who will be a guest of the music department in February 2022 as the distinguished Bloch Lecturer. The program features the UC Berkeley Chamber Chorus, led by Wei Cheng, and acclaimed koto player Kyoko Kawamura in a selection of works that reflect the composer's interest in traditional Japanese arts such as calligraphy and gagaku as sources of musical inspiration.

Tickets: $34 (prices subject to change)

Sunday, February 6, 3pm

Hertz Hall

Recital

Eric Lu, piano

Program:

Schumann/Arabeske in C major, Op. 1

Waldszenen, Op. 8

Brahms/Theme and Variations in D minor, Op. 18

Bach/Tocatta in C minor, BWV 91

Chopin/Piano Sonata in B minor, Op. 5

Young pianist Eric Lu is rapidly building a reputation as a promising artist with a distinctive musical voice, known for elegance, delicacy, and restraint at the keyboard. A recipient of this year's prestigious Avery Fisher Career Grant, Lu first came to attention at age 17 as a winner at the 2015 Chopin International Competition in Warsaw—and at age 20, he won First Prize at the Leeds International Piano Competition, the first American to win that award since Murray Perahia. The centerpiece of Lu's Cal Performances debut is Chopin's demanding final Piano Sonata, which rallies the pianist's powers through a turbulent landscape until it arrives at its breathless conclusion

Tickets: $56 (prices subject to change)

Saturday, February 12, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Jazz

Wayne Shorter and esperanza spalding's

Iphigenia (West Coast Premiere, Cal Performances Co-commission)

Wayne Shorter, compose

esperanza spalding, librettist and performer

Frank Gehry, set design

Lileana Blain-Cruz, director

Clark Rundell, conductor

Program: Two generations of jazz royalty collaborate on the new opera Iphigenia, a re-imagining of Euripides' play Iphigenia in Aulis, with music composed by 11-time Grammy-winning composer and saxophonist Wayne Shorter, and a libretto by four-time Grammy-winning bassist, composer, and vocalist esperanza spalding, who also stars in the lead role. The fully staged work is performed in its West Coast premiere by a 28-piece chamber ensemble with members of the Wayne Shorter Quartet at its center, plus a cast of nine vocalists and a chorus of 10 singers, directed by Lileana Blain-Cruz and with set design by iconic architect Frank Gehry.

Tickets: $36–$96 (prices subject to change)

Sunday, February 13, 3pm

Hertz Hall

New Music

Spektral Quartet

Program:

Philip Glass/String Quartet No. 2, Company

Schubert/String Quartet No. 13 in A minor, D. 804, Rosamund

Samuel Adams/Current (World Premiere, Cal Performances Co-commission)

Chicago's Spektral Quartet is widely praised for illuminating the connections between beloved works in the canon and fresh new repertoire by living composers. The ensemble's Berkeley debut features the world premiere of a new electroacoustic composition by Samuel Adams, Current, a bespoke work created especially for the quartet that explores, in Adams' words, "the relationship between the minimal digital language of resonating snare drums and the warm, acoustic complexity of the string quartet." Schubert's haunting Rosamunde Quartet, and Philip Glass' Company Quartet, originally composed for a theatrical production of Samuel Beckett's 1979 novella of the same name, complete the program.

Tickets: $48 (prices subject to change)

Thursday, February 17, 7:30pm

Zellerbach Hall

Jazz

Two Wings: The Music of Black America in Migration (West Coast Premiere)

Jason Moran and Alicia Hall Moran, producers
Jason Moran, pian

Alicia Hall Moran, mezzo-sopran

with Imani Winds

Program: Alicia Hall Moran and Jason Moran’s Two Wings: The Music of Black America in Migration explores the Great Migration of six million Black Americans from the rural South to northern cities and beyond. The husband and wife duo—he a MacArthur Fellow and acclaimed jazz composer and pianist, she a celebrated classical vocalist and composer—trace their family histories through the music that accompanied these brave travelers throughout the 20th century, from Harlem Renaissance-era jazz tunes, gospel hymns, bebop standards, and Broadway show tunes, to classical and chamber music and the Morans’ own compositions. Two Wings also includes texts by Black scholars, and poets. The production, in its West Coast premiere, will be recreated especially for Cal Performances audiences, with a star-studded roster of performers, writers, thinkers, and special guests to be announced.

Tickets: $36–$78 (prices subject to change)

This performance is part of Cal Performances’ Illuminations: “Place and Displacement” series

Sunday, February 20, 3pm

Hertz Hall

Chamber Music

Takács Quartet
Stephen Hough, piano

Program:

Haydn/Quartet in B-flat major, Op. 76, No. 4, Sunris

Stephen Hough/String Quartet No. 1, Les Six Rencontres (Bay Area Premiere)

Dvořák/Piano Quintet in A major, Op. 81

For its second Cal Performances concert this season, the Takács Quartet collaborates with British-born pianist and composer Stephen Hough. The ensemble performs the Bay Area premiere of Les Six Rencontres, a new work by Hough as well as his first string quartet; Hough then joins them for Dvořák's elegant Op. 81 Piano Quintet. Pianist and quartet have enjoyed a long musical relationship, and their recording together of the Brahms Piano Quintet earned a Grammy nomination. The Takács also performs Haydn's Sunrise quartet from the composer's Op. 76 works, which are prized for their spirit of invention and ensemble interaction

Tickets: $92 (prices subject to change)

Friday, February 25, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Saturday, February 26, 8pm

Dance

Memphis Jookin': The Show (West Coast Premiere)

Featuring Lil Buck

Program: Lil Buck, a star of the homegrown Memphis street dance style called “jookin’”, became a YouTube star after director Spike Jonze uploaded a video of his dance improvisation with cellist Yo-Yo Ma, and since then the young sensation has collaborated with everyone from Madonna to choreographer Benjamin Millepied. Along with a DJ and an expert eight-dancer crew, in Memphis Jookin': The Show, Lil Buck makes his Cal Performances debut, transporting audiences to the streets, the hallways, and the clubs where Memphis “jookin’” was born.

Tickets: $38–$86 (prices subject to change)

MARCH 2022

Friday, March 4, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Saturday, March 5, 8pm

Sunday, March 6, 3pm

Dance

The Joffrey Ballet

Program 1 (March 4 & 6):

Gerald Arpino/Birthday Variations (1986; music: Giuseppe Verdi)

Chanel DaSilva/Swing Low (West Coast Premiere; 2021; music: Zoe Keating)

Nicolas Blanc/Under the Trees' Voices (West Coast Premiere; 2021; music: Ezio Bosso)

Itzik Galili/The Sofa (1994; music: Tom Waits)
Yoshihisa Arai/Boléro (West Coast Premiere; 2021; music: Maurice Ravel)

Program 2 (March 5):

Gerald Arpino/Birthday Variations (1986; music: Giuseppe Verdi)
Chanel DaSilva/Swing Low (West Coast Premiere; 2021; music: Zoe Keating)
Nicolas Blanc/Under the Trees' Voices (West Coast Premiere; 2021; music: Ezio Bosso)
Itzik Galili/Mono Lisa (2020; music: Thomas Höfs)
Yoshihisa Arai/Boléro (West Coast Premiere; 2021; music: Maurice Ravel)

The esteemed Joffrey Ballet returns to Berkeley to conclude its six-year, three-visit campus residency. In two programs, the company showcases new choreographic voices and works by an international group of renowned creators, many in their West Coast premieres.

Tickets: $42–$148 (prices subject to change)

Friday, March 4, 8pm

First Congregational Church

Early Music

Jordi Savall and Le Concert des Nations
Tous les matins du monde

Program: Among the biggest surprises of Jordi Savall's decades-long career as a cross-cultural musical adventurer and explorer of the Baroque was the international blockbuster success of his soundtrack for the film Tous les matins du monde. Alain Corneau's 1991 drama, set in the 17th and 18th centuries, is a fictional portrayal of the relationship between two composers—Marin Marais, viol player at the court of Louis XIV, and his teacher, Jean de Sainte-Colombe. Savall and his ensemble Le Concert des Nations perform a concert version of works included in the film soundtrack, a mix of court ballet music and stage pieces by Lully, Couperin, and Rameau with solo and duo works for viol by Marais and Sainte-Colombe—including Marais' catchy Sonnerie de Ste-Geneviève.

Tickets: $74–$98 (prices subject to change)

Sunday, March 6, 3pm

Hertz Hall

Recital

Angel Blue, soprano

Program: The voice of American soprano Angel Blue is praised for its expressiveness both in the heights of her range and the depths of her lower register. Most recently, she starred in the Metropolitan Opera’s long-awaited new production of Porgy and Bess, for which she shared a Grammy for Best Opera Recording this year. Blue makes her Cal Performances solo recital debut with a program of songs and arias by Puccini, Strauss, and Kurt Weill, music by American composers George Gershwin and Lee Hoiby, and arrangements of Black American spirituals.

Tickets: $68 (prices subject to change)

Saturday, March 12, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Theater / New Music

Ted Hearne and Saul Williams’ Place (West Coast Premiere)

Created by Ted Hearne, Patricia McGregor, and Saul Williams

Ted Hearne, composer

Saul Williams and Ted Hearne, librettists

Patricia McGregor, director

Sanford Biggers and Tim Brown, scenic designers

Program: Composer Ted Hearne confronts the inequities of urban gentrification head-on in Place, an oratorio created in collaboration with director Patricia McGregor and librettist Saul Williams. The fully staged, evening-length work—seen here in its West Coast premiere—features six vocalists and an 18-member ensemble that blends the energy of rock, pop, and electronic music with acoustic orchestral sonorities. The first part of the libretto is a collage of Hearne’s own writings and autobiographical reflections, which are placed in conversation with—and overtly challenged by—Williams’ text in the second half, which addresses displacement through the lens of history, social justice issues, and critical race theory.

Tickets: $32–$82 (prices subject to change)

This performance is part of Cal Performances’ Illuminations: “Place and Displacement” series

Sunday, March 13, 3pm

Hertz Hall

Recital

Jakub Józef Orliński, countertenor

Michał Biel, piano

Program:

Purcell/Music for a while

If music be the food of lov

Fairest isl

Here the deities approv

Strike the vio

Schubert/Auf der Donau, D. 55

“Die Stadt,” from Schwanengesang, D. 95

Nachtstück, D. 67

Handel/“Un zeffiro spiro,” from Rodelind

Karłowicz/Nie płacz nade mn

Z Erotykó

Na spokojnym, ciemnym morz

Mów do mnie jeszcz

Przed nocą wieczn

W wieczorną ciesz

Czasem gdy długo na pół sennie marz

Zaczarowana królewn

Naginski/Look down, fair moo

Copland/The world feels dust

Nature, the gentlest mothe

Why do they shut me out of heave

Purcell/Your awful voice I hea

As a performer, Jakub Józef Orliński is praised for bringing vitality and sensuality to centuries-old music, and has enjoyed mining the countertenor repertoire for unrecorded, little-known gems. Joined by his one-time Juilliard dormmate and frequent collaborator, the Polish pianist Michał Biel, Orliński makes his Cal Performances debut with a wide-ranging program in English, German, Italian, and Polish—by Purcell, Schubert, Handel, Copland, the late 19th-century Polish composer Mieczysław Karłowicz, and a setting of a Whitman poem by American composer Charles Naginski.

Tickets: $68 (prices subject to change)

Thursday, March 17, 7:30pm

Zellerbach Hall

Pop

The Summit: The Manhattan Transfer Meets Take 6

Program: Ten voices strong and with 20 Grammy Awards between them, the combined forces of vocal group Manhattan Transfer and male gospel ensemble Take 6 deliver an evening of pristine voices raised in song. The unprecedented first meeting of this supergroup was the subject of a PBS special called The Summit, and now the groups come to Berkeley with a rousing program. The two groups sing separately and together—both a cappella and backed by a live band—and then join forces for a friendly “battle of the bands.” Expect hits like “Operator,” “Birdland,” “Boy From New York City,” and “Route 66,” plus music by Ray Charles and Stevie Wonder, favorites from the Great American Songbook, and new arrangements prepared just for this tour.

Tickets: $36–$96 (prices subject to change)

Friday, March 18, 8pm

Zellerbach Playhouse

Saturday, March 19, 8pm

Sunday, March 20, 3pm

Dance

Dorrance Dance

SOUNDspace (Bay Area Premiere)

Program: In her tap dance work SOUNDspace—a stripped-down production free of ornate sets and glitzy costumes—, acclaimed choreographer Michelle Dorrance shows how powerfully movement and music are entwined in the bodies of expert dancers. Featuring 12 dancers and a lone acoustic bassist, Dorrance and her company focus the viewer’s attention with a sense of drama and a depth of expression that reveals the choreographer’s deep connection to the art form’s earliest roots.

Tickets: $78 (prices subject to change)

Saturday, March 26, 8pm

Zellerbach Playhouse

Jazz

Matthew Whitaker

Program: Jazz prodigy Matthew Whitaker began touring internationally at age 11, playing a wide repertoire of straight-ahead jazz, hard bop, R&B, and Latin music. His 2019 record, Now Hear This, was universally praised by the jazz press, and his compositions have recently been recognized with two Herb Alpert Young Jazz Composers awards. Whitaker makes his Cal Performances in-person debut performing on piano and Hammond B3 organ joined by Marcos Robinson on guitar, Karim Hutton on electric bass, and Isaiah Johnson on drums.

Tickets: $68 (prices subject to change)

Sunday, March 27, 3pm

Zellerbach Hall

Chamber Music & Orchestra

Mahler Chamber Orchestra

Mitsuko Uchida, piano and director

Mark Steinberg, concertmaster and leader

Program:

Mozart/Piano Concerto in A major, K. 488

Webern/Five Movements for String Orchestra, Op. 5

Webern/Variations for Piano, Op. 27

Mozart/Piano Concerto in C minor, K. 491

Following her Cal Performances at Home all-Schubert recital this spring, pianist Mitsuko Uchida returns for an in-person concert with the Mahler Chamber Orchestra (MCO) that draws a line from Mozart's Vienna to the Second Viennese School of Webern. Uchida gained renown early in her career for her complete recorded cycles of Mozart's concertos and sonatas. The program features two concertos composed in the winter of 1785–86, when Mozart was at the height of his genius: the A major concerto is best known for its magnificent slow movement; the C minor concerto for its inventiveness. The musicians of the MCO shine in Webern's Five Movements, with Uchida joining for the composer's late-period Variations.

Tickets: $50–$175 (prices subject to change)

Tuesday, March 29, 7:30pm

Zellerbach Hall

Wednesday, March 30, 7:30pm

Thursday, March 31, 7:30pm

Friday, April 1, 8pm

Saturday, April 2, 2pm
Saturday, April 2, 8pm
Sunday, April 3, 3pm

Dance

Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater

Robert Battle, artistic director

Matthew Rushing, associate artistic director

Program: The Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater has been performing annually in Berkeley for more than half a century—appearing at Zellerbach Hall more than any other place in the world outside of New York City. Following its video performance for Cal Performances at Home this June, the Ailey dancers return—in person again after two long years—as the company resumes its annual residency with programs that uplift and inspire. Under the leadership of Robert Battle, the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater continues to embody the legacy of its founder by celebrating artistic excellence, unbounded creativity, and the power of art to transform and engage. Expect new works by young voices like Resident Choreographer Jamar Roberts, placed in conversation with timeless classics like Ailey’s own Revelations (1960).

Tickets: $42–$150 (prices subject to change)

APRIL 2022

Sunday, April 3, 3pm

Hertz Hall

Recital

Jamie Barton, mezzo-soprano

Jake Heggie, piano

Program:

Jake Heggie/“Music,” from The Breaking Wave

Purcell, Britten/“Music for a while,” from Oedipus, Z. 583, No.

Schubert/An die Musik, D. 54

Gretchen am Spinnrade, D. 11

Rastlose Liebe, D. 13

Price/We Have Tomorrow

The Poet and His Son

Nigh

Hold Fast to Dream

Brahms/Unbewegte laue Luft, Op. 57, No.

Meine Liebe ist grün, Op. 63, No.

Von ewiger Liebe, Op. 43, No.

Jake Heggie/What I Miss the Most... (West Coast Premiere

Of Gods and Cat

Iconic Legacie

Mezzo-soprano Jamie Barton has captured the music world's attention with her vocal performances, but she is also lauded for the ways she uses her powerful voice offstage—elevating the concerns of women and LGBTQ+ people through her social media presence and speaking out on topics such as body positivity, diet culture, and social justice issues. In her Cal Performances debut, Barton is accompanied by longtime friend and collaborator, composer/pianist Jake Heggie (Dead Man Walking, Moby-Dick), in a program featuring selections from their recent recording, which explores the perspectives of the powerful women represented in Heggie's songs and operas. The pair also perform the West Coast premiere of Heggie's What I Miss the Most..., a song cycle with new texts by Joyce DiDonato, Patti LuPone, Sister Helen Prejean, Ruth Bader Ginsburg, and Kathleen Kelly.

Tickets: $68 (prices subject to change)

Friday, April 8, 8pm

Hertz Hall

New Music
yMusic

Program:

Gabriella Smith/Tessellation

Missy Mazzoli/Ecstatic Scienc

yMusic/Zebra

yMusic/Sober Mile

yMusic/Floo

Judd Greenstein/Together

Andrew Norman/Difference (West Coast Premiere, Cal Performances Co-commission)

Following its video presentation as part of this spring's Cal Performances at Home season, the new-music ensemble yMusic—all members of Generation Y—returns with a program of new and recent works for its in-person Berkeley debut. The centerpiece of the concert is the West Coast premiere of Difference, a Cal Performances co-commission by Grawemeyer-winning and Grammy-nominated composer Andrew Norman. The program also includes Missy Mazzoli's Ecstatic Science; Berkeley-born composer Gabriella Smith's Tessellations; Together, a new work Judd Greenstein wrote for the group during quarantine; and several new pieces co-composed by the ensemble during the past year's hiatus from live performance

Tickets: $48 (prices subject to change)

Saturday, April 9, 8pm

First Congregational Church

Chamber Music
Vienna Piano Trio

Program:

Schubert/Piano Trio in B-flat major, D. 89

Schubert/Piano Trio in E-flat major, D. 92

The Vienna Piano Trio makes its Cal Performances debut in a rare—and final—West Coast appearance as part of its farewell tour, offering Berkeley audiences a look into Schubert's chamber music, performing the composer's two piano trios back-to-back. The B-flat Trio is a lively and lyrical work, among the most revered chamber pieces in the repertoire; the E-flat Trio traverses darker and more ominous terrain. Both works were composed in 1827, a year before Schubert's death at 31.

Tickets: $46–$74 (prices subject to change)

Sunday, April 10, 3pm

Zellerbach Hall

Chamber Music & Orchestra
English Baroque Soloists

Sir John Eliot Gardiner, director

Program:

Haydn/Symphony No. 103 in E-flat major, Drumroll

Mozart/Sinfonia Concertante for Violin, Viola, and Orchestra in E-flat major, K. 364

Mozart/Symphony No. 39 in E-flat major, K. 543

Conductor John Eliot Gardiner and the English Baroque Soloists are best known to US audiences through their award-winning recordings of Monteverdi, Bach, Beethoven, and dramatic works of the Baroque. Gardiner, a two-time Grammy winner, leads the period-instrument ensemble he founded more than 40 years ago in a program of Mozart and Haydn. Haydn's Drumroll Symphony is a study in drama and suspense; Mozart's Sinfonia Concertante is a conversation between violin and viola soloists and the orchestra; and the composer's Symphony No. 39 is a late-period opus that reveals supreme craft and ingenuity

Tickets: $36–$98 (prices subject to change)

Saturday, April 23, 8pm

Hertz Hall

Chamber Music
Tetzlaff Quartet

Program:

Haydn/String Quartet in G minor, Op. 20, No.

Berg/String Quartet, Op.

Brahms/String Quartet in A minor, Op. 51, No.

The Tetzlaff Quartet visits from its home base of Germany for a program of masterpieces by Haydn, Berg, and Brahms. In this rare US visit, a follow-up to the quartet's Cal Performances at Home recital last fall, the Tetzlaff Quartet performs Haydn's G minor quartet from Op. 20, Brahms' A minor quartet from Op. 51, and Berg's string quartet from Op. 3.

Tickets: $86 (prices subject to change)

Saturday, April 23, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Theater / Pop

Angélique Kidjo

Yemandja: A Story of Africa (West Coast Premiere, Cal Performances Co-commission)

Angélique Kidjo, composer and lead performer

Naïma Hebrail Kidjo, writer and librettist

Cheryl Lynn Bruce, director

Kerry James Marshall, production designer

Darryl Archibald, music director

Kathy Perkins, lighting designer

Rasean Davonte Johnson, projections designer

Mary Jane Marcasiano, costume designer

Choreographer to be announced

Program: In her first foray into musical theater, Cal Performances’ 2021–22 season artist-in-residence Angélique Kidjo explores themes of love, betrayal, honor, and revenge against the backdrop of slavery in 19th-century West Africa. Yemandja, named for a Yoruban deity, is a panoramic work of magical realism, a parable about gods and humans that illuminates through song what happens when people are robbed of their culture. Kidjo sings backed by a live band and a chorus of dancer-singers, in a fully staged production directed by Cheryl Lynn Bruce and featuring stage design by the revered Black American visual artist Kerry James Marshall; the libretto is by Kidjo’s daughter, Naïma Hebrail Kidjo. Last year, Kidjo was honored as one of the BBC’s 100 most inspiring and influential women from around the world, where she was recognized as “one of the greatest artists in international music today.”

Tickets: $36–$88 (prices subject to change)

This performance is part of Cal Performances’ Illuminations: “Place and Displacement” series

Thursday, April 28, 7:30pm

Zellerbach Hall

Recital

Daniil Trifonov, piano

Program:

Prokofiev/Sarcasms, Op. 17

Szymanowski/Piano Sonata No. 3, Op. 36

Debussy/Pour le piano

Brahms/Piano Sonata No. 3 in F minor, Op. 5

Pianist Daniil Trifonov returns to Berkeley in his first solo recital for Cal Performances, with a program of rarely heard masterpieces from the mid-19th to early 20th centuries. Trifonov made his Cal Performances debut in 2015 in a duo recital with violinist Gidon Kremer, returning as a soloist with the Montreal Symphony Orchestra the following year—and his star has been rising steadily since then, culminating in a 2021 Grammy nomination. He plays Prokofiev’s miniatures, Sarcasms; Szymanowski’s technically demanding Piano Sonata No. 3; Debussy’s Pour le piano, and Brahms’ Piano Sonata No. 3, a work of symphonic proportions and scope.

Tickets: $38–$100 (prices subject to change)

Friday, April 29, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Chamber Music
Danish String Quartet

Program:

Lotta Wennäkoski/New Work (Bay Area Premiere, Cal Performances Co-commission)

Schubert/String Quartet in D minor, D. 810, Death and the Maiden

The Danish String Quartet returns for its second Berkeley concert this season, pairing a Schubert string quartet with a newly commissioned work as part of its Doppelgänger project, a three-season initiative co-commissioned by Cal Performances. Schubert’s Death and the Maiden quartet, one of the pillars of chamber music repertoire, is matched here with its musical twin, a new quartet by Finnish composer Lotta Wennäkoski—“a composer with ideas and a distinctive way of voicing them.” (The Guardian)

Tickets: $58–$92 (prices subject to change)

MAY 2022

Thursday, May 5, 7:30pm

Zellerbach Hall

Spoken Word
David Sedaris

Program: In his most recent book, The Best of Me, David Sedaris has compiled his favorite work, spanning decades of his career—and here reads excerpts of these truly memorable stories and essays, sprinkled with backstories and anecdotes.

Tickets: $36–$96 (prices subject to change)

Friday, May 6, 8pm

First Congregational Church

Early Music
The Tallis Scholars
Peter Phillips, director

Program:
Brumel/Missa Et ecce terrae motus (Earthquake Mass)

David Lang/sun-centered (Cal Performances Co-commission)

In a program that builds a bridge between the 15th and 21st centuries, the Tallis Scholars pair a masterwork of Renaissance polyphony with a new composition by composer David Lang. Antoine Brumel’s colossal Earthquake Mass, scored for 12 voices, has been the hallmark of this ensemble’s performances for decades. Lang, who is co-founder and co-artistic director of the new-music collective Bang on a Can, has composed dozens of award-winning works for choir and voice, from chamber works to oratorios to opera—and received the 2008 Pulitzer Prize for another a cappella work, The Little Match Girl Passion. His sun-centered is a response to Brumel’s mass, inspired by Galileo’s pursuit of truth, the nature of human curiosity, and the perils of suppressing it.

Tickets: $48–$82 (prices subject to change)

Saturday, May 7, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Pop
Lila Downs

Program: Mexican American singer and activist Lila Downs has earned multiple Grammy and Latin Grammy Awards, and she now ranks as one of the most recognizable singers in Latin alternative music. Downs, “no stranger to raising hell and consciousness through the power of song” (Rolling Stone), champions the causes of immigrants, women, and indigenous groups in her genre-hopping compositions. Her latest release, Al Chile, is infused with the rhythms of cumbia and explores themes of pleasure and pain, suffering and redemption, through the metaphor of Mexico’s ubiquitous chili pepper.

Tickets: $36–$86 (prices subject to change)

JUNE 2022

Friday, June 3, 8pm

Zellerbach Hall

Saturday, June 4, 2pm

Saturday, June 4, 8pm

Sunday, June 5, 3pm

Dance

Eifman Ballet

Russian Hamlet (West Coast Premiere)

A ballet by Boris Eifman

Program: In this recent revival of Russian Hamlet, choreographer Boris Eifman masterfully reimagines Shakespeare’s play in the context of a sordid chapter of Russian history—focusing on the figure of Paul I and his confrontation with a hostile world built on violence, treachery, and lies. The lavish staging and powerful choreography are set to music by Beethoven and Mahler.

Tickets: $42–$160 (prices subject to change)