Berkeley, January 19, 2022 — Cal Performances announces today the cancellation of Ilmar Gavilán and Aldo López-Gavilán's concert scheduled for Sunday, January 23 in Zellerbach Hall, as one of the principal performers has contracted chickenpox.

While patrons are unable to attend an in-person performance, Cal Performances continues to offer a free stream of Los Hermanos, the documentary film about Ilmar Gavilán and Aldo López-Gavilán, through January 30. The film is presented as part of Cal Performances' 2021-22 Illuminations "Place and Displacement" series which explores the effects of migration and gentrification on individuals and communities through a wide variety of performances, public programs, and academic encounters.

Those who hold tickets for the live performance may apply the value of their tickets for another performance in the 2021-22 season; donate the cost of their tickets as a tax-deductible gift to Cal Performances; or receive a refund. If the Cal Performances Ticket Office does not hear from patrons by Wednesday, February 2 at 5pm regarding an exchange or donation, refunds will automatically be issued within 7–10 days.

The Ticket Office can be reached at tickets@calperformances.org (recommended) or via phone at 510.642.9988 during business hours: Tue–Fri, noon–5pm.
