IN MEMORIAM

Judith Jamison

(1943–2024)

The current season of Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater celebrates the life and legacy of Artistic Director Emerita Judith Jamison, who passed away on November 9, 2024.

Cal Performances dedicates the company's April 2025 UC Berkeley residency (fondly referred to as "Ailey Week") and 2025 AileyCamp to her legacy as well.

Founded by Alvin Ailey on March 30, 1958, Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater is one of the most acclaimed dance companies in the world. With a repertory that boasts close to 300 works by more than 100 choreographers, it has performed in more than 70 countries on six continents and has been designated a “vital American Cultural Ambassador to the world” by a US Congressional resolution. Forged during a pivotal moment in the Civil Rights Movement, Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater was established to uplift the African American experience while transcending boundaries of race, faith, and nationality with its universal humanity. Ailey invited dancers of all backgrounds to be a part of his vision while reimagining his company as a “library of dance,” a home for a wide range of choreographers’ works that might otherwise be lost. Before his untimely death in 1989, Ailey named Judith Jamison as his successor, and for 21 years she brought the company to unprecedented success. In 2011, she selected Robert Battle as her successor; he stewarded the company until 2023. Today, Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater continues to bring joy to audiences around the globe, while expanding its repertory with works by new choreographers and upholding Ailey’s legacy for future generations.

Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater gratefully acknowledges The Joan & Sandy Weill Global Ambassador Fund, which provides vital support for Ailey’s national and international tours.

Alvin Ailey (founder)

Alvin Ailey was born on January 5, 1931, in Rogers, Texas. His experiences of life in the rural South would later inspire some of his most memorable works. Ailey was introduced to dance in Los Angeles by performances of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo and the Katherine Dunham Dance Company, and his formal dance training began with an introduction to Lester Horton’s classes by his friend Carmen de Lavallade. Horton, the founder of one of the first racially integrated dance companies in the United States, became a mentor for Ailey as he embarked on his professional career. After Horton’s death in 1953, Ailey became the director of the Lester Horton Dance Theater and began to choreograph his own works. In the 1950s and ’60s, Ailey performed in four Broadway shows. In 1958, he founded Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater to carry out his vision of a company dedicated to uplifting the African American experience while enriching and preserving the legacy of modern dance. The creation of his masterpiece Revelations in 1960 cemented his reputation as a choreographer of unique vision, with the ability to transcend racial barriers and connect deeply to people’s humanity. Ailey established the Alvin Ailey American Dance Center (now The Ailey School) in 1969 and formed the Alvin Ailey Repertory Ensemble (now Ailey II) in 1974. He was also a pioneer of programs promoting arts in education. Throughout his lifetime he was awarded numerous distinctions, including the Kennedy Center Honor in 1988 in recognition of his extraordinary contribution to American culture. In 2014, he posthumously received the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the country’s highest civilian honor, in recognition of his contributions and commitment to civil rights and dance in America.

Following Ailey's death on December 1, 1989, The New York Times said of him, "you didn't need to have known [him] personally to have been touched by his humanity, enthusiasm, and exuberance and his courageous stand for multi-racial brotherhood."

Matthew Rushing (interim artistic director) was born in Los Angeles. He began his dance training with Kashmir Blake in Inglewood, California, and continued his training at the Los Angeles County High School for the Arts. He is the recipient of a Spotlight Award and a Dance Magazine Award and was named a Presidential Scholar in the Arts. Rushing was a scholarship student at The Ailey School and later became a member of Ailey II. During his career, Rushing has performed as a guest artist for galas in Vail, Colorado, as well as in Austria, Canada, France, Italy, and Russia. He has performed for Presidents George H. W. Bush, Bill Clinton, George W. Bush, and Barack Obama, as well as at the 2010 White House Dance Series. During his time with the company, he has choreographed five ballets: Acceptance In Surrender (2005), a collaboration with Hope Boykin and Abdur-Rahim Jackson; Uptown (2009), a tribute to the Harlem Renaissance; ODETTA (2014), a celebration of "the queen of American folk music"; Testament (2020), a tribute to Alvin Ailey's Revelations created in collaboration with Clifton Brown and Yusha-Marie Sorzano; and this season's Sacred Songs. In 2012, he created Moan, which was set on PHILADANCO! and premiered at the Joyce Theater. Rushing joined the company in 1992. He became Rehearsal Director in 2010, Associate Artistic Director in 2020, and Interim Artistic Director in 2023.

Judith Jamison (artistic director emerita) joined Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater in 1965 and quickly became an international star. Over the following 15 years, Ailey created some of his most enduring roles for her, most notably the tour-de-force solo Cry. During the 1970s and '80s, she appeared as a guest artist with ballet companies all over the world, starred in the hit Broadway musical Sophisticated Ladies, and formed her own company, The Jamison Project. She returned to Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater in 1989 when Ailey asked her to succeed him as artistic director. In the 21 years that followed, she brought the company to unprecedented heights—including two historic engagements in South Africa and a 50-city global tour to celebrate the company's 50th anniversary. Jamison was the recipient of numerous awards and honors, among them a Primetime Emmy Award, an American Choreography Award, the Kennedy Center Honor, a National Medal of Arts, a New York Dance and Performance ("Bessie") Award, the Phoenix Award, and the Handel Medallion. She was also listed in "The TIME 100: The World's Most Influential People" and honored by First Lady Michelle Obama at the first White House Dance Series event. In 2015, she became the 50th inductee into the Hall of Fame at the National Museum of Dance. In 2016, she received the Douglas Watt Lifetime Achievement Award from the Fred and Adele Astaire Awards. As a highly regarded choreographer, Jamison created many celebrated works, including Divining (1984), Forgotten Time (1989), Hymn (1993), HERE... NOW. (commissioned for the 2002 Cultural Olympiad), Love Stories (with additional choreography by Robert Battle and Rennie Harris, 2004), and Among Us (Pri*vate Spaces: Public Places*) (2009). Jamison's autobiography, Dancing Spirit, was edited by Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis and published in 1993. In 2004, under Jamison's artistic directorship, her idea of a permanent home for AILEY was realized and named after beloved chairman emerita Joan Weill. Following her retirement from leading the company in 2011, Jamison continued to dedicate herself to asserting the prominence of the arts in our culture, and she remained committed to promoting the significance of the Ailey legacy—using dance as a medium for honoring the past, celebrating the present, and fearlessly reaching into the future. Her death on November 9, 2024 prompted an outpouring of love and admiration around the world from those who were touched by her magnificent artistry and extraordinary spirit.

Ronni Favors (rehearsal director) began dancing as a child in Iowa City, Iowa. After studying at the National Music Camp in Interlochen, Michigan, as recipient of the Camp Scholarship, she continued her training at The Ailey School as a Fellowship student. Favors was a member of Ailey II, Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, and the Lar Lubovitch Dance Company, and has received the Min-On Art Award. Horiuchi in Tokyo. Segawa was awarded the Japanese Government Artist Fellowship in 1997 to train at The Ailey School. A former member of Ailey II and Battleworks, Segawa danced extensively for Mark Morris and performed as a principal dancer in John Adams' Nixon in China at the Metropolitan Opera. Since 1999, he has been Creative Associate for Jessica Lang, assisting her creations for companies worldwide including American Ballet Theatre, Pacific Northwest Ballet, the Royal Ballet, and the National Ballet of Japan. With Lang, Segawa co-choreographed the world premiere production of Turandot for the Washington National Opera, directed by Francesca Zambello. He was a dancer with Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater under the direction of Robert Battle from 2011–23 and became Assistant Rehearsal Director in 2024.

Bennett Rink (executive director) became Executive Director of AILEY in 2013. He first joined Ailey as Manager of Special Events in 1994, became Development Director in 1998, and then worked as Senior Director of Development and External Affairs from 2007 to 2012. During his tenure overseeing AILEY's development and fundraising efforts, Rink led a major capital campaign to establish the organization's first permanent home, The Joan Weill Center for Dance, which opened in 2005 and attracts more than 200,000 visitors each year. Rink also oversaw the campaign to build the Ailey's endowment, which provides vital ongoing support for programmatic initiatives. When the company celebrated its 50th anniversary in 2008, Rink supervised an 18-month celebration including events, promotions, collaborations, and special performances, bringing public awareness of the AILEY organization to new heights. During his time as Executive Director, the company has deepened its presence in New York City by establishing an annual spring season to complement its New York City Center winter season, while also extending its role as America's "Cultural Ambassador to the world" with tours to Africa, Europe, and South America. To reach audiences beyond live performances, Rink has broadened the organization's commitment to creating film and digital content. He has also extended the reach and impact of AILEY's educational offerings, including the creation of new curricula and programs that reach across generations, from elementary school children to older adults. In 2017, the organization unveiled the Elaine Wynn and Family Education Wing, providing much-needed additional studios and classroom space. The building now comprises 87,000 square feet and is the largest destination for dance in New York City. In recent years, Rink has overseen a branding initiative to express the totality of AILEY's offerings, creating greater connectivity among Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, Ailey II, The Ailey School, Ailey Arts in Education & Community Programs, and Ailey Extension. Most recently, he led the organization's collaboration with the Whitney Museum on Edges of Ailey, the first large-scale museum exhibition celebrating the life, dances, influences, and enduring legacy of Alvin Ailey. # AILEY CAMP

CELEBRATING 23 YEARS AT UC BERKELEY

Conceived and launched by Alvin Ailey in 1989 and produced locally by Cal Performances, Berkeley/Oakland AileyCamp instills discipline, self-esteem, creative expression, and critical thinking skills in young people through the art of dance. The same focus and life skills required in the arts are also necessary in school, particularly for middle-schoolers who are at risk or struggling with academic, social, or domestic challenges. AileyCamp includes:

- Six weeks of tuition-free, intensive learning for 70 students
- Daily dance classes, plus meals and transportation
- Personal development classes offering counseling in goal-setting, nutrition, conflict management, media literacy, positive self-image, leadership development, and more.

This season, Cal Performances celebrates 23 years of AileyCamp on the UC Berkeley campus. We're proud to have enhanced the lives of more than 1,300 young people, plus hundreds more in their families and communities. We believe that this extraordinary program—along with our annual residency with Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater—makes a significant contribution to the cultural life of the Bay Area.

Help ensure that this year's AileyCamp is fully funded and remains tuition-free for all participants!

AILEY CAMP 2025

Celebrating 23 Years at UC Berkeley

"My confidence and real-life resilience were developed here at AileyCamp. This is something that will help me for years to come."

—2024 AileyCamper

Since 2002, Cal Performances has been home to one of the only West Coast sites of Alvin Ailey's visionary summer dance program, and today, it is the only camp based on a major university campus.

AileyCamp is a nationally acclaimed, six-week program designed to develop self-esteem, discipline, creative expression, and a capacity for critical thinking in youths ages 11–14—important skills they will need as they enter the challenging high school years ahead. The AileyCamp curriculum includes daily dance technique classes in ballet, Horton-based modern, jazz, and African dance. Workshops in creative communication and personal development provide a vehicle for individual expression and community building. And best of all, students need no prior dance experience to apply!

Berkeley/Oakland AileyCamp culminates in a finale performance in which campers demonstrate the skills they have acquired in the program. The atmosphere in the hall is nothing less than electric! AileyCampers are excited to show all that they have learned, and family and friends make up the eager audience that thrills to the young artists' magnificent dancing. At the end of camp, a radiant glow shines from the faces of the campers and the 2,000 attendees who have shared in the celebration.

The impact of AileyCamp resonates far beyond the environs of the UC Berkeley campus. Since its inception, AileyCamp has served more than 1,300 Bay Area middle school youths and their families. Berkeley/Oakland AileyCamp is administered and fully funded by Cal Performances. All campers receive full-tuition scholarships, meals, uniforms, and dance attire, and Oakland residents are provided transportation to and from camp. The Education Board Committee, a division of the Cal Performances Board of Trustees, provides oversight, and in the past decade some 300 volunteers have enthusiastically donated their time and talents to the operation of AileyCamp.

Please join us at the AileyCamp Finale Performance as we celebrate 23 years at UC Berkeley—at 7pm on Thursday, July 24, 2025 at Zellerbach Hall.

Admission to the finale performance is free, though tickets are required and available through the Cal Performances Ticket Office beginning on July 11. For more information, call (510) 642-4630 or email aileycamp@calperformances.org.

This year's camp runs from June 16 to July 25, 2025.
